

The UCLA Center for Argentina, Chile and the South Cone Presents:

Missing Identities

Conflicting sentiments in a world of enforced disappearance in the Southern Cone

Co-Sponsored by the UCLA Department of Spanish and Portuguese

THURSDAY, JANUARY 31
4:00-5:30PM
10383 BUNCHE HALL

Gabriel Gatti is a sociologist professor at the Universidad del País Vasco and coordinator of the Collective Identity Center Studies. Within the CEIC he conducts transdisciplinary research about the identity of the victims and the processes of construction and social identity transformation of migrants and the displaced in the current context of globalization.

In Spanish | Light refreshments provided

